

For Immediate Release:

PEACE Zone Receives Signs of Support Grant from Signarama Evansville

Evansville, Indiana – February 19, 2014 – PEACE Zone is pleased to announce that it was recently awarded a Signs of Support grant from Signarama Evansville. The grant is to be used for banners to advertise PEACE Zone's arts and crafts show and vehicle signage. The grant will help PEACE Zone carry out its mission of empowering individuals living with mental health conditions and educating the community about mental health issues.

PEACE Zone is a peer-run recovery center supporting individuals living with health issues through peer support, recovery education, socialization opportunities, advocacy, and referrals. In 2013, 326 different individuals visited PEACE Zone a total of 3,129 times.

Signarama Evansville is a locally owned and operated, full-service sign and graphics company offering a wide range of products to help clients maximize branding and marketing efforts. “The Signs of Support Grant Program supports and strengthens local civic and charitable organizations with donations of signage, graphics and displays at partial or no cost. Any organization that is eligible may submit an application for their needs.” – Signarama Evansville, <http://www.signsoveramerica.com/t-signs-of-support.aspx>
